

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q: When will I receive a confirmation email with all of the showcases logistics information?

A: Roughly two weeks before the date of your athlete's showcase, an email will be sent to all families highlighting where to go, what to bring, what we provide, final agenda, confirmed media, and more.

Q: Will lunch be provided for the athletes at the showcase?

A: No, all athletes are responsible for bringing their own healthy snacks and hydration to fuel up throughout the showcase, as athlete's will have various fueling breaks within the agenda.

Q: Does my athlete need his football equipment?

A: No. Helmets and pads are not required, however, all Quarterbacks and Running Backs are required to bring their own football to utilize within their position-specific drills.

Q: Will my athlete receive video footage of his repetitions from the showcase?

A: Yes, all athletes will receive uploaded video footage of their position-specific groups repetitions with various competitive one versus one repetitions and half-field 7 versus 7 repetitions. Linemen will receive their one versus one repetitions as well.

Q: Are there any awards given at the showcase?

A: Yes, there are position-specific awards given out to the Top Performing Quarterback, Running Back, Wide Receiver, Tight End, Offensive Lineman, Defensive Lineman, Linebacker, Defensive Back, and Safety.

Q: Are the coaches and media's overall rankings provided to the families and high school coach of the athlete?

A: Yes, roughly 3-5 days post the showcase, the overall rankings will be emailed to all families, the athletes, and their respective coaches. Rankings will be sorted by best overall, by position and by class.

Q: Are spectators allowed to attend and take pictures and video?

A: Yes, it is highly recommended and encouraged for all family members to attend and support their athlete at the showcase; family-friendly environment.